Comments: These cabins should never have been allowed in the first place. Homesteading is not allowed there.

NOW, instead of getting rid of this mess you are going to condole it and allow more crap to be built where the animals only have to live. You do not have the right to do this madness. Get rid of the mess there and STOP doing it for the future of the lands, the air, the waters, the beloved homes of animals which have no other place to live. People just want it all. Share nothing. No one seems to have a heart anymore and care about anything but themselves. I do . I care. Is there no one among you who do????
