

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 4:28:19 PM

First name: Dean

Last name: Mieras

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello

The issue here is maintaining the 'wild' in wilderness!

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Thank you