

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 4:31:48 PM

First name: Marina

Last name: Mooney

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear All,

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Wilderness is meant to be wild and untrammelled.

Thank You.