

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 4:30:07 PM

First name: Bob

Last name: Seibert

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I strongly oppose relaxing the guidelines for renewing and transferring permits for cabins in Alaska Wilderness. These private use cabins have no place in officially designated Wilderness under the 1964 Wilderness Act. They were never intended to be permitted permanently. There has been more than sufficient time pass for these cabin owners to prepare for the surrender of these structures. Do not make the mistake of allowing these structures to persist into the future.