

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 4:43:26 PM

First name: Gloria

Last name: Phillip

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The ANILCA cabins in the Alaskan wilderness need to be removed. A wilderness area should be just that with no permits allowed for buildings of any sort there. Wilderness is an area for wildlife and cabins defeat that purpose. There could be encounters with bears, wolves, and I do not wish to see the bears or wolves exterminated for a few cabin proprietors who should not be there in the first place. Thank you for considering my comments.