

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 4:44:20 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: Henderson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear U.S. Forest Service,

Existing and newly-built cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its current policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Thank you,

Michael Henderson