Comments: Leave the wilderness alone. Get rid of the cabins that were unauthorized to begin with. People have to learn that they can't tread on every inch of land just because they want to.

Phase them out - sooner rather than later. Americans are the most spoiled, self-centered people on the earth.

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.
