

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 5:00:26 PM

First name: Tamara

Last name: Olcott

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not make this change. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act. Wilderness needs to be preserved. These cabins should be removed. There is no "compatible" use. Thank you.