

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 5:40:57 PM

First name: Gordon

Last name: Parker III

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Cabins are definitively antithetical to every tenet of designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original commitment. These cabins must not persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act in spirit and law.