Comments: Cabins in the Wilderness? "Improvements on Wilderness? These are NOT the intention of the Wilderness Act and millions of Americans do not support these actions. I do not support these actions, and I honeymooned in a wilderness cabin in the Sawtooth Wilderness in WA many years ago. Trees grew from the roof and the dirt floor grew moss. We sheltered in our tent from the storm. I'm sure that cabin remains but is barely visible as the forest reclaims its logs and shake shingles. That is the only way to preserve Wilderness for generations to come. Thank you for your kind consideration. The world is watching.
