

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 6:18:05 PM

First name: Jo

Last name: Cartmell

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear Forest Service,

As a wildlife conservationist, it is without question that your service must phase out ANICLA cabins in the Wilderness and leave your policy unchanged. A wilderness has to be full of thriving biodiversity undisturbed by human structures and disturbance, other than by the Inuit and other native people who know how to coexist with wildlife. Please honour your policy to phase out the ANICLA cabins.

Yours sincerely,

Jo Cartmell