

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 6:36:39 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: Rees

Organization:

Title:

Comments: With regard to the proposed revision to the ANILCA cabins, I believe cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent of the act. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Thank you.