

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:17:26 PM

First name: lisa

Last name: haage

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing to oppose the proposed change. Wilderness areas are essential to protecting habitat and species. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.