

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:16:58 PM

First name: Eleanor

Last name: Weisman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I live in rural Maine and know the importance of preserving the nation's wilderness areas. Cabins and camping can damage natural habitats and threaten wildlife. I urge the U.S. Forest Service to maintain its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins. The original intention was that cabins would not be maintained in the Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act. Thank you