

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:20:54 PM

First name: Paula

Last name: Keisler

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am against building cabins on the little remaining wilderness left. In the immortal words of President Theodore Roosevelt when they wanted to build on the Grand Canyon; "leave it as it is". The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.