

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:24:15 PM

First name: Jeffrey

Last name: Marion

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Developed structures, including cabins of any type, are inconsistent with Wilderness and wilderness character, as clearly described in the Wilderness Act. Their inclusion was a compromise for ANILCA but it is now time to phase out the use of these cabins and allow them to deteriorate or be removed. Tent camping is the appropriate form of overnight accommodation in wilderness - I tent camp on all my wilderness trips and so can others who visit wilderness on its terms.