

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:33:22 PM

First name: Shira

Last name: Fogel

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Cabins have no place in designated Wilderness areas. The U.S. Forest Service should maintain its current policy and gradually remove ANILCA cabins, aligning with the initial purpose. These cabins were never intended to endure within Wilderness zones, and altering this policy would contradict ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.