

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:36:40 PM

First name: Jeffrey

Last name: Luther

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I would like to suggest that cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service should leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.