

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:27:42 PM

First name: Karen

Last name: Thaw

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Existing use of cabins in Wilderness should expire or be phased out beyond rights afforded to families, as originally intended.

These families have no ownership rights to these cabins.

Wilderness should not have long term occupancy due to mission of protecting habitat and wildlife without barriers in order that wildlife may proliferate with clean water and unencumbered land.

Please phase out the use of cabins in Alaska wilderness according to original terms.

Keep Alaska Wilderness wild.