Comments: Wilderness should be wilderness - wildness. With cabins come other issues contrary to wilderness - roads (incl'g vehicle noise) leading to & around them, waste, or waste removal and general activities in & around them that would obviously not be happening if the cabins weren't there. Uncertain why there is suddenly a push to change the previously established conservation act - other than pressure to do so from "invested" parties or to keep the permit revenue stream coming. Either way, it is definitely contrary to the original intent of the ANILCA act and definitely contrary to "wilderness".
