

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:55:03 PM

First name: Bob

Last name: Steininger

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Cabins do not belong in designated Wilderness Areas. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness Areas, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.