

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 7:56:58 PM

First name: Katherine

Last name: Porter

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Privately owned cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act. Please protect the wilderness and do your best to return it to its more pristine state.