

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 8:45:42 PM

First name: John

Last name: Messer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Cabins are not intended for designated Wilderness areas. The U.S. Forest Service should maintain its current policy and gradually eliminate ANILCA cabins, which was the initial plan. The presence of these cabins in Wilderness areas was never meant to be permanent, and any alteration to this policy would compromise both ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.