

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 8:30:52 PM

First name: Jane

Last name: Alexander

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There should not be any cabins in designated wilderness. The US Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins as was intended originally in 1987. The permits are nontransferable and END at the death of the last immediate family member of the ORIGINAL CLAIMANT. Cabins were never actually authorized in the first place,

Leave current policy in place and phase out ANILCA cabins.