

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 8:56:49 PM

First name: Susan

Last name: Waggle

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe it is wrong to change the policy regarding the permits for ANILCA cabins in the Wilderness. It was a courtesy to allow already existing cabins to be inhabited by the people there at the time the wilderness law went into effect, but the intent was to phase them out as the original residents died. The wilderness is intended as a safe habitat for wildlife; not for people!