

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 9:16:00 PM

First name: Dorothy

Last name: POPPE

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear Friends at the Forest Service,

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Please help us protect our nation's beautiful wilderness.

Thank you for considering my request,

Dorothy Poppe