

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 9:15:30 PM

First name: Terry

Last name: Sprague

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Since these cabins were constructed on Federal lands, they are squatter cabins and should be removed. Having people stay in wilderness areas opens them up to encounters with bears, wolves and coyotes, and also snakes. There is a chance of wildfires via use of the cabins as well. How about the hunters that sneak out their kills? There just is nothing good about keeping these cabins in a wildlife are. LET WILDLIFE BE SAFE IN THE WILD!