

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 9:35:05 PM

First name: Louise

Last name: Simone

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I do not support a change in The US Forest Service's policy of allowing cabins to renew permits. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. Cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and should not remain indefinitely. To change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.