

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 10:04:41 PM

First name: Nancy

Last name: Gehlhausen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The original intent for the ANILCA was that the cabins were to be phased out once there were no longer any heirs. Anything permanent in a Wilderness area should not be allowed. Once these cabins are gone that should be the end of them. Leaving a door open will only allow for future intrusions upon the wilderness. Our wilderness is priceless and it must be treated that way.