

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 10:33:34 PM

First name: Tiffany

Last name: Theden

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not change the rules to allow cabins in wilderness areas. The rule changes proposed would allow cabins to exist in wilderness areas for the foreseeable future. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.