Comments: Dear U.S. Forest Service,

These are my personal comments about the U.S. Forest Service (FS) Special Uses Handbook, Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act Cabin Policy #ORMS-3666.

I'm disgusted that the FS would propose to allow cabins that should've been phased out along time ago in designated Wilderness, to be allowed to be renewed forever. Cabins, which are structures and installations in designated Wilderness, don't belong there and aren't allowed.

The FS must keep its policy unchanged and phase out all ANILCA cabins in Wilderness and other lands, as was the original intent with these special use permits. These cabins aren't meant to exist in Wilderness forever, and to change this policy undermines ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Do the right thing and stop permitting these cabins in Wilderness and other federal lands now! No more SUPs and extensions for these illegal structures.
