

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 11:09:11 PM

First name: M. E.

Last name: Braun

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Cabins certainly do not belong in designated Wilderness areas. The U.S. Forest Service needs to leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Do the right thing!