

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 11:34:14 PM

First name: Dianne

Last name: Ensign

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I do not want to see cabins in Wilderness. Wilderness is intended as a refuge from human interference and artifacts. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act. I strongly support the intentions of the Wilderness Act. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.