

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/8/2024 11:55:56 PM

First name: K

Last name: Danowski

Organization:

Title:

Comments: US Forest Service:

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.

Thank you for considering my comments.