

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/9/2024 12:13:00 AM

First name: Melva

Last name: Mills

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please continue phasing out cabins in our Wilderness areas! Special-use permits for unauthorized cabins is unfair and destructive.

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.