

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/9/2024 12:14:15 AM

First name: Maya

Last name: Kurtz

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Cabins should not be allowed in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original plan. These cabins were never meant to exist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act. This issue is very important to me. We must protect wilderness as the only areas on the planet that are free from human influence.