

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/9/2024 1:37:58 AM

First name: Linda

Last name: Derks

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Protect our land!! Residences don't belong on public land. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service must leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent. These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.