

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/9/2024 3:56:26 AM

First name: Mark

Last name: Houdashelt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: ANILCA cabins need to be phased out, especially in Wilderness, where they were never supposed to persist. Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness, and changing the US Forest Service policy to allow them there indefinitely would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act. Please don't change policy to allow ANILCA cabins to remain after the expiration of their current permits.