

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/9/2024 4:30:56 AM

First name: Torunn

Last name: Sivesind

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As someone who greatly values wilderness, and who knows the importance of wilderness preservation, please consider:

Cabins don't belong in designated Wilderness. The U.S. Forest Service should leave its policy unchanged and phase out ANILCA cabins, as was the original intent.

These cabins were never meant to persist in Wilderness, and to change this policy would undermine ANILCA and the Wilderness Act.