

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/9/2024 6:24:09 AM

First name: Michael

Last name: Callan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please let the cabin permits expire permanently and return what wilderness was taken by them to nature. Too wilderness has been lost globally already and more continues everyday. Habitat loss is the biggest threat to species worldwide. In order for animals other than humans to persist in their natural order they need large swath of land free from human influence. If we continue to exploit the land we will continue to diminish our world and God's other magnificent creations.