Comments: I am writing in full support of preserving the endurance trails and camping areas in this section of the Ochocos. I've ridden and camped there many times and it is truly a slice of heaven that cannot be duplicated anywhere. The deep ruts caused by ATVs and OHVs are awful, dangerous to riders and hikers, and they're ugly scars on the land.

Thank you for your time, effort, and commitment directed at keeping this beautiful legacy area of Central Oregon open to those who tread lightly.
