

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/27/2024 11:51:50 AM

First name: Emily

Last name: Lanxner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please STOP considering any plan to disrupt and cut-dow trees in Vermont's valuable old-growth forested regions by creating telephone corridors. Everyone who needs telephones has them! Vermont has already taken the initiative to install fiber optic internet throughout the state, in order to additionally guarantee internet access throughout the state. There is NO NEED to cut down these valuable trees that also provide an important role in carbon sequestration and climate resilience.