

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/28/2024 11:21:51 PM

First name: Lee

Last name: Kramer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I hope the revised forest plan will emphasize protection of wild places, such as roadless areas, by recommending them for wilderness or as a minimum not allowing increases in motorized use. I am particularly interested in the cube iron area northeast of Trout Creek.

As one travels the country and sees our increasing population and associated development it becomes clear that wild places are becoming increasingly rare and special. It is hard to undo development so let's work to keep them wild.