

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/29/2024 2:08:23 PM

First name: Andrew

Last name: Zitzer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Lolo National Forest land management plan revision 62960 shows support for the long term protection of valuable lands. The need to protect headwaters is more important now than ever. As more people and big money move into the state these ecologically and economically important lands become more vulnerable and valuable in the LONG run. Water is a resource that all life must have and the source MUST be protected!! The time is now to save these resources for ourselves and the future.