

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/31/2024 11:16:50 PM

First name: Vladimir

Last name: Kovalenko

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello. I wish to express my desire to limit to the utmost possible extent adding new areas to winter motorized use. Snowmobiles are agents of disturbance to wildlife, watersheds, and other forest users. Opening new zones to motorized use stands in opposition to the Forest Service's mission of advancing the recovery of listed species such as wolverine and grizzly bear. There is a vast body of evidence demonstrating the negative effects of motorized use on these species. Please, no new motorized use.