

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/1/2024 2:30:59 PM

First name: Ruby

Last name: Salisbury

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I deeply object to this project. Mature forests are our best defense against the threats posed by climate change and they need to be preserved and protected for our health and the well being of future generations. The proposed removal of such vital forest is distressing and would have incredibly detrimental effects on the Vermont environment we all depend on for our survival.