

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/1/2024 11:07:27 PM

First name: Dale

Last name: LaBonte

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It is unthinkable that any public forest should experience logging in this climate emergency. We need our trees, the people's trees, to continue their irreplaceable work of capturing and storing atmospheric carbon. Logging releases carbon--from the equipment to the cutting itself, and from the disturbed soil, particularly from wetlands. The forest service must stop this project!