

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/4/2024 3:10:36 PM

First name: Mary

Last name: Barron

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am strongly opposed to logging in the national forest. Large areas of mature forest take a long time to develop and are a critical component of mitigating human-caused climate change. Disturbing and destroying these forest ecosystems risks introduction of invasive organisms while disrupting habitat for native ones. While I am pro-outdoor recreation, I am strongly against this project in its current form. What's the rush?