

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/4/2024 10:03:13 PM

First name: Sally

Last name: Thodal

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please reconsider plans for logging in Telephone gap. New research shows how important mature and old growth forests are to fighting climate change and protecting plant and animal species. Scientists are also finding that forest ecology is much more complex than we have understood in the past. Please take this opportunity to preserve the forest with no logging on this public land and let demand for forest products be met by logging on private land.