

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/6/2024 12:15:46 PM

First name: Bryan

Last name: Ruegg

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I would like to see in the Lolo National Forest Plan, a policy, where chipping becomes more common when dealing with large slash piles. This would increase the forest's topsoil, fungal ecology, soil moisture content, carbon sequestration, air quality, and the season for thinning. The value of including fungal ecology within a Nation's Forest Plan will be appreciated for the rest of our existence.